G. O. P. Raised Cash on Y. M. C. A. Plan

QUOTA SYSTEM NOT NEW PLAN, WITNESS SAYS

Organizer Owen Says the Plan Is 25 Years Old and Can Be Bought in Printed Form From the Y. M. C. A. for 25 Cents.

ATLANTA EXPERIENCE NOT VERY ENCOURAGING

Blair, Assistant to G. O. P. Treasurer Upham, Says Scheme Didn't Work in Georgia's Capital—Woman Collector Tells the Probers How She Gets Campaign Money.

Chicago, September 9.—Testimony bearing upon Governor Cox's charge that a quota list of fifty-one cities had been sent out by the republican national committee was elicited at today's session of the senate committee investigating the campaign fund. While Harry M. Blair, assistant to Fred W. Upham, republican treasurer, was on the stand, a document was introduced which the witness identified as a substitute for "form 101," the campaign plan which Blair drew up, but which was rejected by the national executive committee. This substitute document stated an intensive campaign was to be undertaken in fifty-four cities and it also indicated that the national treasurer was to appoint city chairmen of the ways and means committee.

John A. Kelly and G. De Forest Kinney, state ways and means clerks for Ohio and Illinois respectively, later said they appointed the local chairmen themselves and the national treasurer had nothing to do with these appointments or with fixing quotas for the various counties.

In addition, Henry Owen, a paid assistant to Mr. Blair and organizer for Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and Indiana, testified he had never heard of a plan to organize organizations. Furthermore, he said he never saw form 101 and knew nothing of its being locked in a safe at republican headquarters after it had been printed.

Mr. Owen told Senator Spencer the whole republican method of raising funds was a "stock plan."

"I can buy it for you in printed form for 25 cents," he added.

"Where?" asked Senator Reed.

"From the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A.," said the witness. "The plan is 25 years old and hundreds of copies of it have been made and anything but original with this drive."

The committee held another night session. Chairman Kenyon explained they hoped to wind up the committee hearings in this city by Saturday night.

Other developments today included testimony by Mr. Kelly that he fixed the quotas of Ohio counties at twice what he expected the local rate, but did not inform local chairmen of that. At that state basis, the workers in that state were driving in $1,200,000, which the national committee wanted.

"We shot at the moon, hoping to hit the tree tops," explained Mr. Kelly.

Woman Collector on Stand.

Mrs. Bertha Baur, of Chicago, ways and means vice chairman for Illinois, told of the difficulties of raising money among women voters.

"We thought that since women had assumed the privileges of the ballot their obligations," she said, but her responsibilities showed she had collected $25.75 from only five counties in Illinois, and all except $25 had come from Cook county. She said she had tried to appoint vice chairmen in each of the 101 counties of the state, but had succeeded in only 62.

There was one subscription of $2,000 and thirteen of $1,000 in Mrs. Baur's list. The $2,000 was received last May from Mrs. John H. Gary, the witness said.

Mrs. Baur, dressed in light gray and black, with hat to match, told the story of her raising money for the republican party in an alert, straightforward manner.

"I am collecting funds because I consider it a patriotic duty," she informed the committee with a spirited tilt of her head.

Chairman Kenyon observed in a list of contributors Mrs. Baur had submitted that Mrs. Upham was down for $1,000.

"Was that $1,000 turned over to Mr. Upham?" he asked.

"Yes, sir," replied the witness with a smile.

OLIVE THOMAS NEAR TO DEATH FROM MERCURY

Paris, September 9.—Olive Thomas, motion picture actress, is lying in a critical condition at the American hospital at Neuilly, where she was taken several days ago suffering from mercurial poisoning. An official statement issued by Dr. Joseph Choate, an American physician, who is in charge of the case, says: "The situation is serious, but recovery is hopeful."

It is learned, however, from a reliable source, that the condition of Miss Thomas is extremely critical, and that her recovery is doubtful. Dr. Choate said today that the actress had swallowed a solution of alcohol preparation containing 12 grains of bichloride of mercury, sufficient to kill twenty-five men, but he added that she had taken it through error.

Recently, Miss Thomas, it is said, had been suffering from nervous depression, and had expressed fear for the safety of her husband, Jack Pickford. According to Dr. Choate, it was only through the prompt first aid given by Pickford, on his return to the hotel where they are staying, that Miss Thomas is alive now.

BRITISH TROOPS SEARCH BAGGAGE OF U. S. CITIZENS

New York, September 9.—The Rev. Father M. E. English, of Whitehall, Mont., on arriving here today on the steamer Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, announced that the state department probably would be asked to investigate the search of his baggage and seizure of his letters by soldiers in Ireland. He declared his protests that he was an American citizen were ignored.

Father English, who said he would first refer the matter to Senator Walsh, of Montana, declared the day he left County Limerick, Ireland, he was seized by British soldiers, who were searching his baggage. He said he heard that the soldiers had shot him on the following day. He has not learned of his brother's fate.

Father English said that the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria approached the dock, English passengers were searched by British soldiers. He said that during the voyage from Queenstown, Liverpool, English passengers had protested to the ship's officers the singling of Irish passengers. A compromise was effected whereby it was agreed that the first-class passengers would be searched by British soldiers, while the second-class passengers would be searched by British soldiers. This arrangement was accepted by the passengers, and the ship departed.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., September 9.—Warren Delano, of New York and Barrytown, uncle of Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic vice presidential nominee, was instantly killed at the Barrytown station of the New York Central railroad, twenty-one miles from New York, when his favorite horse, Bell, frightened by the approach of an express train, dashed onto the tracks late this afternoon.

A special committee was appointed to consider the military policy of the order.

Confession to Crime, Followed by Suicide, Amounts to Conviction

Austin, Texas, September 9.—Confession to a crime, followed by suicide of the confessed criminal, is tantamount to a conviction, the attorney general's department held in effect today in an opinion which declared that Sheriff Goodall, of Kent county, should receive the reward offered by the state for "the arrest and conviction of a man accused of murder, who was alleged to have confessed to the crime and killed himself after being apprehended by the sheriff."

BRANDEE RENAMED FOR THE U. S. SENATE

TERRELL IN CLASH WITH DR. DURHAM AT BOARD MEETING

Commissioner and Minister Differ Over City's Duty to Negro in Regard to Higher Education of Race.

NEAR "LIE DIRECT" ENLIVENING MEETING

The "Retort courteous" came dangerously near passing to the "lie direct" Thursday afternoon between Dr. Plato Durham, of Emory university, and W. H. Terrell, of the Atlanta board of education, when they disagreed in a discussion over Atlanta's duty to the negro with reference to high school education. Each of the speakers had prepared a paper for the meeting, and each was determined to make his point.

Dr. Durham, who was the first to speak, declared that the colored race should be allowed greater high school facilities, while Mr. Terrell took that stand that the board of education should concern itself first with providing the colored children with grammar schools before attempting to provide "classical education."

Statements from both Mr. Terrell and Dr. Durham developed some heat, and a warm exchange between the two was possible. The board of education, however, accepted by Dr. Durham, who left the council chamber with the parting shot at Mr. Terrell: "All we want is for you to make a statement of the facts, which you have not done. To this Mr. Terrell replied with a spirit, that he had stated the facts."

Appear Before Board.

Dr. Plato Durham, with John J. Egan and other members of the Interchurch movement, appeared before the board of education Thursday afternoon to ask that the colored people of the city be given a square deal in the matter of high school education. Mr. Egan, who first stated that the board of education had been provided with a report by the league of nations, declared that the board should be asked to take the colored people of the city into consideration. He declared, however, that these five grades were not sufficient to take care of the colored people of the city, and that the board should be asked to take the colored people of the city into consideration.

Superintendent W. P. Dykes, following Mr. Egan's plea for a centrally located high school for the colored people, stated that an eighth grade had been established at Ashby street and Houston schools. He declared, however, that these five grades were not sufficient to take care of the colored people of the city, and that the board should be asked to take the colored people of the city into consideration.

Dr. Durham also called attention to the large number of colored people in the city for negroes and the comparatively small tuition fee of $18 per year charged at some of them.

Dr. Durham said at this point arose to address the board, and he spoke eloquently of the efforts that have been made by a joint committee of the white and negro communities of the interchurch movement to cure racial friction. He declared that he had decided to give the matter a square deal, and not to leave it to the board of education. He declared that the Atlanta plan of giving the white and negro communities a square deal had been known all over the United States, and had given this city more credit than any other city in the world. He declared that it had received the commendation of noted negroes and white men, and that its success had been the subject of resolutions by the interchurch movement in Atlantic City.

"We want to give the negro a square deal," declared Dr. Durham, "and in order to do this, we have to give them good schools."

Closing his address, Dr. Durham said: "We have definitely made it known that this is a white man's country and that we are to rule it. We should rule with even-handed justice in order that every

Death Numbness Attacking Limbs Of Lord Mayor

MacSwiney's End Seems Near at Hand—Alleged Prison Officials Will Forcibly Feed Mayor When He Becomes Unconscious.

BY PERCY SARR,
United News Staff Correspondent.

London, September 9.—The moment Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney lapses into complete unconsciousness from the effects of his hunger strike, he will be forcibly fed.

That, at least, is the expressed intention of the British jail physicians who are watching over his health. The announcement of this plan was made Thursday afternoon by one of the doctors who has just remonstrated with the lady mayoress for "permitting" her husband to maintain his resolution to starve himself to death.

"We would feed him by force now, if it weren't that this 'lie direct' would kill him, provided he struggled against it. Consequently, in his weakened condition that would be impossible," he said.

This brought about a spirited conflict between the family, the dying prisoner and the physician.

Notwithstanding his extreme weakness, the fighting Irish patriot was strong within MacSwiney when he heard the argument in his presence the doctor had told Lady MacSwiney that she was simply aiding her husband to commit suicide, and that by her refusal to urge the lord mayor to take food, she was contributing to his death.

The words aroused the prisoner for a moment. He attempted to remonstrate, but the painful struggle was too much, and he fell back exhausted, and very nearly collapsed.

With the return of Premier Lloyd George to London and his continued refusal to interfere, the last faint hope held by MacSwiney's relatives flickered out. The family appears completely crushed by the circumstances of his death.

Dr. Durham, who was the first to speak, declared that the colored race should be allowed greater high school facilities, while Mr. Terrell took that stand that the board of education should concern itself first with providing the colored children with grammar schools before attempting to provide "classical education."

COX GIVES PLEDGE TO ASSIST CAUSE OF IRISH FREEDOM

Governor Tells Montana Voters He Will Present Ireland's Case to League of Nations If Elected.

FRESH ATTACK MADE ON CHAIRMAN HAYS

Cox Asserts That Evidence Heard by Senate Probers Has Confirmed His Charges of G. O. P. "Corruption Fund."

Butte, Mont., September 9.—A definite pledge to "present the Irish cause" to the league of nations, in event of his election, and a further attack on republican leaders and that party's contributions, were made here tonight by Governor Cox in closing his Montana campaign.

In three extensive speeches today at Helena, Anaconda and Butte, and in a half dozen newspaper talks en route, the democratic candidate, concluding the first week of his western tour, hammered the league, the republican "corruption fund" and labor issues into his audiences.

The Irish question developed at the governor's meeting here in front of the courthouse lawn.

"It would be my duty," he said, "and very quickly availed of, as a friend of peace, asserting the friendly right of any member of the league to present the Irish cause to the attention of the league under the authority given by article eleven and give to Ireland, or any other aggrieved people, the opportunity to plead their cause before the bar of civilized opinion."

Fresh Attack on Hays.

Dealing with testimony before the senatorial investigating committee at Chicago, Governor Cox made fresh assault upon William H. Hays, republican national chairman, and Henry Blair, the governor declared the Chicago testimony had confirmed his charges, on the heel of denials by Chairman Hays and other republican officials.

His first line of argument on the league, settlement of the Irish question, instead of bayonets and progressivism were given by the governor. He also reiterated attacks upon Senator Harding, his republican opponent, the "senatorial oligarchy" and "big business."

In discussing the league, the governor presented local questions in Anaconda, and Butte, where his large laboring populations of many racial sources and their copper interests. And at Helena he also argued a reclamation development.

Through the league, the candidate said, the Irish people would have had material prosperity would be had by creating foreign markets for copper and other products of mine, farm and labor, when European conditions become stabilized.

The Irish question, Governor Cox said, needs settlement to promote peace between the English-speaking races. Reading Article 11 of the covenant, providing for consideration by the league council or assembly of any international question whatever "which threatens to disturb the peace or good understanding between nations," Governor Cox said that under existing conditions the Irish question could not be presented "to the bar of public opinion."

"We have four times as many people of Gaelic blood in the United States as there are in Ireland and their natural feelings not only are in our domestic relations but also stand like granite monuments before the stretching hands of the English-speaking nations."

When we took up arms, we must not be forgotten that that gave us unity and great strength. We must not be forgotten that we fought to end the rule of might over the weak, and that we were champions of the weak. We must not be forgotten that we stood for the reign of law based upon the consent of the governed. We must not be forgotten that we stood for the reign of law based upon the consent of the governed. We must not be forgotten that we stood for the reign of law based upon the consent of the governed.

SOCIAL COLLAPSE MENACING ITALY

As Result of Seizure of Industrial Plants by the Workers—The Government Urged to Act, But Remains Neutral.

BY A. E. JOHNSON,
United News Staff Correspondent.
London, September 9.—Unless the government speedily and energetically restores order in Italy, the whole social structure of that country is in serious danger of collapse. Word from Rome received here by The Morning Post, emphasizes the growing demand upon the Italian cabinet to intervene in the economic crisis, before it is too late. Delays are costing the government a considerable part of its prestige and power, and the demand for action is growing insistent.

The communists are still in the saddle in hundreds of factories of the metal-working district. The chief obstacle to the success of this experiment in sovietism is the fact that they have not yet been able to enlist the skilled and technical workers in their program. But it is reported that some of these highly-paid engineers are being held prisoner and forced to work at the bidding of the factory-soviet chiefs.

Of Serious Concern.
Of serious concern to the authorities, at this moment, is the growing tendency on the part of warehouse men and railway and transport workers to side with the metal workers. This is overcoming one of the chief difficulties encountered by the bolsheviks in their attempt to operate the factories they have seized. For a time, in their ignorance of the source of supplies and the methods of purchasing the raw products, they have been unable to create any finished products.

The radicals have shifted somewhat in their demands. Whereas, the movement began merely as a strike for higher wages, it has grown far beyond its original limits, and its great aim today is the complete nationalization of all factories.

There are thus three methods of dealing with the outcropping of bolshevism in western European countries, and Italy's test will determine which system is the most efficacious. In the first, France attempted to at the outset of the movement and crushed it by force. In the second, England met it by compromise—and is still compromising. In the third, Italy is pursuing the policy of "letting it burn itself out."

Italian statesmen for the most part believe that this policy is the safest, because the vast majority of the workmen will tire of the situation and soon discover their inability to run industry without the aid of the men above—the skilled workers and the white-collar men.

Italy's Government Neutral.
Rome, September 9.—Efforts continue to bring about a solution of the situation, which has arisen throughout Italy as a result of the movement among metal workers to occupy plants in many of the most important industrial centers. The government has been called upon to intervene, but so far has been neutral, by its policy of non-interference.

It will act to insure maintenance of order. Reports received here indicate that the government is looking upon the situation as being favorable to an adjustment of the situation. It is declared that the majority of the metal workers are controlled by extreme socialists who are desirous of giving the movement a political character, but responsible leaders of the party are said to discourage such a policy.

At the same time, the workers have announced they are ready to convert themselves into co-operative societies, which would undertake the direct management of works that have been occupied, which would be fixed by arbitration and deposit the necessary guarantees.

Movement Well Prepared.
When he returned from a conference with Premier Lloyd George at Lucerne, Premier Giolitti issued a statement referring to recent agreements between European socialist and Nikolai Lenin, Russian bolshevik premier, and forecast that such agreements might be forerunners of active revolutionary activity which would soon occur in Italy. There is every indication the present movement was prepared that efforts were made to involve other trades besides metal workers. The typical attitude of the Italian peasants, however, made it difficult to set any extended revolt in motion. It is asserted that in many plants a serious situation has arisen because of the fact that the workers have armed themselves with tools and machinery, and in many places machine guns mounted at a plant turned out to be wooden weapons which had been camouflaged.

Leghorn, Italy, September 9.—Workmen who have occupied the Grando shipyards here launched a destroyer, built there for the Italian government today. The ship, which was named after the Italian flag, was named after the Italian flag, and as it gracefully took the water there rose deafening cries of "viva socialism."

Deputy Capochioli, who is president of the Metal Workers' union, launched the vessel, and Signora Pietro Mascagni, wife of the famous composer, acted as godmother for the ship. Signor Mascagni made a brief address as a result of which the workmen sang a chorus from his opera, "The Masquaders."

The square-bottom paper bag, which has been in almost universal use for half a century, was the invention of a woman—Miss Maggie Knight of Holyoke, Mass.

SIX CONGRESSMEN TO RETAIN SEATS

Seventh Is Winner on the Face of Incomplete Returns, and Eighth Is Leading His Opponent.

Six of the eight congressmen of Georgia who met with opposition in the September 8 primary are already sure winners. The seventh is a victor on the face of incomplete returns and one is running neck and neck with his opponent.

The winners are Congressman William D. Upshaw, of the fifth congressional district, who defeated Hooper Alexander and Ben M. Blackburn, the latter a chief lieutenant of Thomas E. Watson; Congressman Carl Vinson in the tenth; Congressman W. W. Larson of the twelfth, who snowed under Roscoe Peacock, his opponent; Congressman Overstreet in the first and Congressman Charles H. Brand, of the eighth, who carried thirteen counties to two for his opponent, Gordon Jones. Congressman Gordon Lee, of the seventh, was also a winner over Claude Porter, his opponent.

Bill Sees Winner.
Congressman Bell of the ninth seemed to be winner over John I. Kelly, another prominent Watson supporter, carrying ten counties to four for Kelly, with five yet to report.

Judge Charles H. Brand, of the eighth, is leading his opponent, Thomas J. Shackelford on the face of incomplete returns, carrying six counties to four for his opponent, with three counties yet to report.

In the tenth congressional district, Congressman Carl Vinson has defeated Sam Olive. The vote follows: Richmond for Vinson by 690 majority; Columbia for Vinson by 29; Tallapoosa for Vinson by 121; Washington for Vinson by 238; Baldwin for Vinson by 121; Hancock for Olive by 450; Warren for Olive by 75; Lincoln for Olive by a safe majority; McDuffie for Olive by 75 majority.

Vinson has 20 convention votes. Olive has 10. The twelve counties have each two convention votes except Richmond with six and Washington four.

Overstreet Wins.
Congressman Overstreet, from the first has been renominated. Chatham's close vote deciding. He carried Chatham, Burke, Jenkins, McIntosh, and Screven. W. F. Slater of Pembroke carried Bryan, Bullock, Candler, Evans and Tatnall. Judge Walter Sheppard of Clayton carried Wilkes and Oglethorpe.

Slater received a popular plural in the district. He was an anti-league democrat. Overstreet's lead in Chatham which decided his election, was less than that of Vinson in the eighth. Slater, Jenkins, Camden, Effingham, Tatnall and Liberty have not been heard from officially. Congressman Overstreet carried Chatham, McIntosh and Screven. W. F. Slater, his opponent, carried Bullock, Evans, Bryan, and the race seems very close.

In the third district, Dooly has not been heard from. Congressman Charles R. Crisp was easily victorious, prevailing Webster, Guittman, Terrell, Schley, Ben Hill, Randolph, Turner, Macon, Lee, Sumter, Clay and Stewart, while Crisp and Terrell for counties were carried by Gordon Jones.

In the fifth district, with all counties heard from, Congressman W. D. Upshaw was an easy winner over Hooper Alexander and Ben M. Blackburn, carrying four counties to one for Blackburn and none for Alexander. Upshaw carried Fulton, DeKalb, Rockdale and Campbell, while Douglas went to Blackburn.

Consolidated returns on the race for congress in the seventh district with Dade county missing, show Gordon Lee has been re-elected for a ninth term over Claude H. Porter, his opponent, by a majority of 2,881. Lee carried Murray county and will also carry Dade. His majority will be more than 3,000.

The official vote in seven counties is as follows: Catoosa, Lee 610, Porter 273; Gordon, Lee 1,105, Porter 1,042; Whitfield, Lee 1,554, Porter 694; Polk, Lee 653, Porter 821; Bartow, Lee 1,595, Porter 822; Cobb, Lee 2,181, Porter 1,210; Floyd, Lee 1,106, Porter 2,060; Chattooga, Lee 1,033, Porter 776; Murray, Lee majority estimated 250; Dade, Lee's majority estimated 150; Haralson, Porter's majority 137; Paulding, Porter's majority 137.

In the ninth district, White, Banks, Pickens and Cherokee have not officially reported. Congressman Bell seemed to be easy winner over John I. Kelly, of Gwinnett, the former carrying Jackson, Fannin, Gilmer, Towns, Stephens, Rabun, Union, Dawson, Habersham and Hall, while Kelly carried Barren, Milton, Forsyth and his own home county.

In the eighth district Clarke, Hart and Franklin have not reported officially. Judge Charles H. Brand has a lead over his opponent, Thomas J. Shackelford, carrying Oconee, Greene, Newton, Pulam, Wilkes and Oglethorpe. Shackelford carried Madison, Morgan, Elbert and Walton.

In the twelfth district, Houston and Wheeler have not officially reported. Congressman W. W. Larson snowed his opponent, Roscoe Peacock, under an avalanche of votes. He carried Mr. Peacock's home county, Dodge, together with Montgomery, Treutlen, Pulaski, Emanuel, Johnson, Wilcox, Blackley, Talbot, Laurens, Toombs and Twiggs.

SO MUCH LIQUOR
COAL PRODUCTION
SHOWS BIG DROP
Connellsville, Pa., September 9.—The loss of 14,000 tons in coke production in the Connellsville region for the current week, is attributed in part by the Connellsville Courier to the fact that the coke ovens in its weekly coke review, made public today, to the operation of 111 liquor sellers.

While there has been more or less liquor procurable in the region since January 16 last, says the Courier, "it is only recently that it has become so plentiful in supply as to interfere with the operation of the plants as seriously as it did prior to the inauguration of prohibition."

Now, however, the liquor traffickers of all degrees and kinds, supplemented by increased proficiency in the art of "home-brewing" has fairly deluged the region with every conceivable kind of intoxicant, ranging in potency from "near-beer" to "near-death pick-a-x" and other first aids to coroners and undertakers.

The possibility of furnishing Rome with an effective waterway to the sea through the Tiber river again is attracting attention in Italy.

DRUNKEN WOMAN MAY PROVE CLUE TO DESERTED BABY

Knoxville, Tenn., September 9.—A woman, apparently intoxicated, and having a child in her possession, who took a taxicab at a local passenger station on Tuesday night and who was driven to a local hotel, is now thought by local police to be a possible clue in connection with the unknown child found in the courthouse square at Morristown, near here, early yesterday morning.

According to the local chief of detectives, the woman called the police station and inquired as to the whereabouts of her child, saying the boy was missing. The police, however, made no official record of the case at the time, as a formal complaint was not registered by the woman. Today they are searching for the woman and also the taxicab driver, in the hope of developing further evidence. Apart from this incident, the detectives state there has been no development as to the possible identity of the child.

The suggestion that the boy may be Billie Coughlin, kidnapped from Morristown, Pa., a few months ago, is not given serious consideration by the officers, either here or in Morristown, according to report today.

The child is thought to have been abandoned by a passing automobile party, which approached Morristown from the direction of Knoxville. He has blue eyes, brown curly hair, which appears to have been trimmed recently. The clothing worn by the child was immaculate and evidenced that he has been well cared for.

The child speaks a few words, but of course cannot talk coherently.

Paints

Fall Painting costs less than spring

There is at least one big reason why Fall painting will cost you less. Putting it off until next Spring, after your buildings have gone through another Winter's wear means they will take more paint to paint them. That's just the plainest kind of plain horse sense.

Then another thing: next Spring you will be so rushed with Spring work that you will put painting off until Fall—and so it goes on from bad to worse.

Anyway you figure it, you can save money by painting this Fall. And speaking of saving—send for circular called—"Figure Your Paint Costs with a Brush—Not a Pencil." Remember that Lowe Brothers' Paint is sold by the one best dealer in each town.

Devastated Italy Once More Ravaged By Seismic Shocks

Another Earthquake in the Emilia District Causes Great Property Damage and Loss of Lives.

Roma, September 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—Another violent earthquake occurred in the Emilia district at 2:35 o'clock this morning, causing the loss of lives and important damage. The communities suffering the most were Reggio, Ospedaletti, Bussana, Toano and Cavola. This morning's shock was more violent than that of Tuesday.

The Emilia embraces the district between the Apennines and the River Po and is divided into the eight provinces of Piacenza, Parma, Reggio, Modena, Bologna, Ferrara, Ravenna, and Forlì. It covers an area of some 7,000 square miles and has a population of approximately 2,500,000 persons.

More than 300 persons perished in the earthquake disaster which shattered cities and villages north of Florence on Tuesday morning. Governmental and private relief agencies are engaged in the work of aiding the survivors and searching the ruins for any victims who may still be alive, but the work is seriously handicapped by the difficulties in reaching many of the ruined towns, which are situated in the mountains and are almost inaccessible. Electric light wires have been broken and work in the ruins must stop at nightfall.

New Shocks Felt.
New shocks but none of them of the intensity of the one which caused the widespread destruction early Tuesday, have been felt in Florence and in the neighborhood of that city. These have shaken down the tottering structures, however, and still further delayed the work of rescuers. Massa Carrara, in the center of the earthquake zone, was cut off from communication with the outside world last night, but it is not believed a new catastrophe has occurred there.

The upheaval was especially terrific in the famous quarry district of Carrara from which comes the finest specimens of marble. Great rocks, dislodged by the shock, rolled down steep roads leading up into the hills, crushing everything in their path.

A tragic and memorable scene was enacted at Marina, near Carrara, when the earthquake shattered ed a church where mass was being celebrated. Father Friggotti, the pastor, had just raised the chalice in the most solemn moment of the service when the ceiling of the edifice fell upon the congregation, killing many of those who were worshipping. The priest was struck by falling fragments of the ceiling and his hands and face were cut, but he reverently finished the service before attending to the injuries of those about him.

EARTHQUAKE RUINS VIEWED BY KING

Fivizzano, Italy, September 8.—By Courier to Florence. By the Associated Press.—King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, today viewed the ruins visited upon this city by the earthquake which Tuesday morning shook northern Italy to its center. He went into every quarter of the town and entered buildings whose crumbling walls threatened to fall if another tremor should come, and talked with survivors, expressing his profound grief over the misfortune that had befallen them and comforting those who were injured. Learning that some of the survivors had not tasted food for 36 hours because of the ruin and disorder resulting from the disaster, he ordered that all food in his private car be distributed among them. During his walk through the city the king approached a stretcher on which was lying an aged woman, and gently touched her forehead. Inquiry elicited the information that the woman's entire family, with the exception of herself and the two small girls with her, had been buried in their home and killed. When the monarch promised to look after the children, joy shone through the tears in the eyes of the mother, who murmured: "May the Madonna bless you. You are, indeed, good to me. You are a real father to these poor people."

NUMBER OF DEAD STEADILY GROWING

Florence, September 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—The number of dead from Tuesday's earthquake is steadily growing as additional reports come in. The latest advices from Fivizzano bring the total of the dead there alone up to 422, while in Vignatta 124 are dead and about 1,000 injured.

In nearly three score towns and villages serious damage was done and a total population of more than 10,000 rendered homeless. Signor Micheli, the minister of agriculture, is visiting the outlying mountainous districts and giving all the assistance possible.

50 DEAD BODIES TAKEN FROM RUINS

London, September 9.—Fifty dead victims of the Italian earthquake have been taken from the ruins of the town of Barga, says a dispatch from Lucca to the Exchange Telegraph company. The message adding that many more are buried in the debris of their homes. The village of Graftana, a heap of ruins, and the survivors have left. Vignatta has been destroyed, and thousands are homeless. Tassak, Cattelietto, Montecuto and Cerasano, the dispatch stated.

Haygood, of the Piedmont road, was held under $3,000 bond for trial in the state court by Judge Johnson in record of the court Thursday morning. Jordan, who is employed by J. J. Williamson, of 594 W. Peachtree street as a chauffeur, was returning from town with Mr. Williamson's car at the time of the accident. He stopped in front of the residence to allow a West Peachtree car to pass, and it is said to have cut in behind it when the milk truck struck him. The outskirts of the city, was alone when the man accosted her. Fearing harm, she fled, but was overtaken near an excavation filled with water to a depth of nearly two feet. Her assailant struck her on the head and she fell into the pool. The dog, which had followed, jumped in after her, and with her clothing clamped between her jaws, stood by until the crew of a passing freight train discovered her pitiful condition. # ALABAMA COAL MINES SHUT DOWN BY STRIKE

Birmingham, Ala., September 9.—Complete shutdowns of four mining companies and one steel manufacturing concern in widely scattered parts of the Alabama bituminous field were reported today as a result of the general coal strike which went into effect Tuesday at midnight.

From Gadsden came the report that the Gulf States Steel company had closed down; also the Altoona Coal company of Altoona, Etowah county. The Warrior Black Creek Coal company, in Blount county, suspended operations. It was reported in Birmingham; also several companies in Walker county. Operations in Bibb and Jefferson counties were also affected by the walk-out, although no shutdowns were reported up to noon today.

J. R. Kennamer, president of the Alabama district, United Mine Workers, stated the strike was making satisfactory progress and that many more companies would be forced to suspend operations before the end of the week. He said 12,000 men are now out, and that production is being limited almost entirely to the fifty-seven mines which are operated under the union "blue book" contract.

Mr. Kennamer's figures were challenged by the operators, who said production was above the average, although no figures were obtainable. They placed the number of men on strike at 8,500 and claimed new labor was being imported to take the place of the union men. Several negro miners from Majestic, Jefferson county, made complaint at the sheriff's office that mine guards were intimidating union men by threatening to "beat them up" unless they continued on the job. No disorder was reported in the strike district today.

Two members of Governor Kilby's coal commission planned to continue conferences with operators and union leaders in the hope of effecting a settlement. Dr. George H. Denny, chairman, was expected here from Tuscaloosa today or tomorrow.

Cotton Men Meet.

Covington, Ga., September 9.—(Special.)—Over 400 enthusiastic farmers and cotton men met in Covington on Tuesday and made plans for marketing the cotton crop for this year.

A number of speeches were made by different men all bearing on the idea of holding the cotton for the very best possible price. It was agreed by all the growers present that a fair profit above cost of production should be received and that the cotton was to be held indefinitely if necessary to obtain this.

THEATERS MOVIES

Loew's Grand—Thursday, Friday and Saturday: Lou and Grace Harvey, melodious harmonists. Charles Russell and Walter Hayes, in an original laugh song, "Let's Sing." Charles Darby and Hazel Brown, in a musical innovation by Wilbur Mack, "Back Home." Art Grant, the popular entertainer; Johnny Clark and company, in a comedy oddity, "Daring Prohibition." In addition to the vaudeville, Max Linder, in a feature photoplay comedy, "The Little Cafe," also Loew's News pictures and comedies.

Lyric—(B. F. Keith Vaudeville)—The bill for the last half of the week consists of Jimmy O'Brien and the Shelley Twins in singing, comedy and dancing; Nada Norain, known as "The Girl With the Phenomenal Voice." Cushing and Davis in a comedy satire, "The Chiropractor." John Geiger and his talking violin; Ceyane Troupe of Whirlwind Dancers; Topical Tips, Pathe News, Bray Pictorial.

Forsyth Theater—Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Dorothy Dalton in "Guilty of Love."

Strand Theater—All week, Hobart Bosworth, in "Below the Surface."

Savoy Theater—Friday, Wm. Desmond in "The Mists of Hell."

Alpha Theater—Friday, Buck Jones in "Forbidden Trails."

Vaudette Theater—Friday and Saturday, William S. Hart in "The Devil's Double."

Katherine MacDonald.

"Passion's Playground," a stirring story of romance, gains and losses at Monte Carlo, the world's greatest gambling resort, where titled persons from all lands seek their fortunes on the roulette wheel. It is the feature at the Criterion theater this week, with Katherine MacDonald as the heroine.

Working gowns that were especially designed for this production and appearing in her most famous characterization as the innocent convent girl and later the winner of the world's great prize, Miss MacDonald's role bids fair to win her thousands of additional admirers.

Other features on this week's bill are Topics of the Day, the Pathe Review and the Criterion orchestra, directed by Dave Love.

"Guilty of Love."

AT THE FORSYTH.

An unusual feature of Dorothy Dalton's new picture, "Guilty of Love," which opened a three-day engagement at the Forsyth on Thursday.

Miss Dalton has the role of a young New England woman who, left impoverished by the death of her father, becomes governess in the home of a rich New York society dowager. She becomes involved in an unfortunate love affair with the dowager's brother which results in a forced marriage between the two.

"Guilty of Love" was adapted from Avery Hopwood's early stage success, "The Woman in the Moon." Katherine MacDonald is the leading lady, and the supporting cast also includes August Anderson and Charles Lane.

Loew Vaudeville.

(At the Grand.)

The bill at the Loew's Grand for the last half of the week provides an excellent feast of variety. Johnny Clark is perhaps the strong point of the bill with an unusual act of balancing and table falls. His back-flop from the topmost of four tables was thrilling—much so as anything seen here in either circus or vaudeville.

Russell and Hayes, mask clever acrobats, with an opening song and they offer one trick at least, a somersault by one man upon the shoulders of the other, that is nothing short of sensational.

Darby and Brown are songsters with a quaint line of comedy talk and gifted sense of humor. Alf Cushing with a monologue, a clever method and manner of presentation and he does famously in the eyes of the audience.

Lou and Grace Harvey are singers of ballads. Both have pleasing voices and the girl is exceptionally pretty.

The feature photoplay for the last half of the week is Max Linder, in "The Little Cafe," also the usual Loew's News Pictures and comedies.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Lyric.)

With John Geiger performing all kinds of feats on his talking violin to the delight of his audience and Jimmy O'Brien and the Shelley Twins presenting a ragtime singing, comedy and dancing act, B. F. Keith's Lyric offers to the goers of Atlanta an attractive program for the last three days of this week.

John Geiger is an artist, and Thursday evening he was compelled to answer queries no less than three times. He is not content in merely making his violin imitate the song of birds, but follow his own conversation, but takes his bow to pieces to render "When We Were Young, Maggie."

Jimmy O'Brien says he is a dancing fool and before he completes his act he proves his assertion. The Shelley Twins have both youth and beauty and excel as his dancing partners.

In rendering "Sleep Baby, Sleep," and other numbers, Nada Norain comes in for a good part of the applause and her act is one of the best on the bill, while the Ceyane whirlwind dancing troupe releases with it snovely capy dancing.

Cushing and Davis present a comedy satire on "The Chiropractor," which is amusing. An excellent prelude to the program is found in the latest Pathe film news, Topical Tips, a Bray Pictorial and a Kauffman weekly.

Wholesale Grocers
To Fight Contracts
With Sugar Refineries

Macon, Ga., September 8.—(Special.)—The Georgia Wholesale Grocers association here today adopted a resolution to declare void and to consider fraudulent any contracts which sugar dealers made with them under conditions which the wholesalers did not believe obtained at the time. In other words under misrepresentation. The dealers agreed as a body of jobbers to fight any test case which might be brought as the result of the cancellation of contracts.

The entire meeting was given over to a discussion of the sugar situation, the dealers arguing over the main question of how to get out of their contracts with the refineries legally. As the situation now stands it was brought out that the wholesalers have large contracts with the refineries for which they must pay twenty-five and a half and twenty-six cents. They sell the same sugar to retail dealers for fifteen, sixteen and eighteen cents a pound. In Macon, it was brought out, some dealers are losing as much as $10 a sack. It was decided it would not be best as an association to fight any case that might be brought against a member of the association but that the jobbers belonging to the association should band together to fight the refineries and this what will be done.

RAIN PLAYS HAVOC IN FULTON COUNTY

Public Service Systems Experience Difficulties, Street Cars Being Halted
for More Than Thirty Minutes.

The weather man has been predicting showers for several days. Just in show that C. P. von Hermann, local meteorologist, knew what he was talking about, Jupiter Pluvius descended about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Virtually all the public service systems experienced trouble. The officials at the Southern Bell Telephone company declared that severe damage. The company is taxed to its capacity at this time, many thousands of election queries being handled along with the regular run of calls.

Trolley service was halted for about thirty minutes due to lightning and heavy winds. Mr. Sharp, of the electrical branch of the Georgia Railway and Power company, declared that the delay was due to various reasons. He said there was no trouble reported directly at the power station, that the trouble was along the company's street lines.

Lines Are Tied Up.

The "starters" department of the trolley branch stated that virtually all lines had been tied up approximately thirty minutes. It was said that lightning struck the trolley at least two places along the car routes. Every effort was made by the company to restore service which was resumed as quickly as possible.

A good portion of the damage was caused by the severe winds that accompanied the downpour. The rain put a stop to the ball game between the Crackers and the Pellicans in the second inning of the series. A big crowd had gathered to see the fourth game of the series and when the clouds opened the faithful were not only denied the pleasures of the day, but were practically drenched finding the path home.

Hat chasing contests were staged at various points in the central part of the city. Persons crossing the railroad bridges just had to hold all headgear or lose the same. At every corner the few pedestrians who braved the elements were treated to a volume of rain and wind that bitterly contested progress.

The main postoffice was the haven of dreary, who, lacking umbrellas and raincoats, ran for shelter. Guardians of the soft drink fountain, usually enjoying a quiet spell about that hour, suddenly found themselves swamped with customers attempting to wash down their real feelings.

Trees Blown to Ground.

Numerous trees were blown to the ground in various sections. A tree in the vicinity of the ball park stretched nearly across the trolley tracks, bent in two at the middle. Automobile progress was accomplished under difficulties. Two machines narrowly missed collision at Forsyth and Walton streets as both drivers attempted to cross the intersection at the same time.

Partly cloudy with probable showers is the weather forecast for Friday. Conditions are favorable for local showers throughout Georgia, says the weather man. During the past twenty-four hours showers occurred in the northern portions of the cotton states and along the Atlantic coast from Jacksonville to Hatteras, also northward to the central Mississippi Valley and lake region. Temperatures remain practically unchanged; it is quite warm generally in the southern states and cool in the northwest with as low as 38 degrees reported at Sheridan, Wyoming.

Weather Conditions.

Chief Marvin, at Washington, D. C., issued a further report on weather and crop conditions in the cotton belt. The summary follows:

"Temperatures averaged about normal except that they were below normal in the northwestern portion of the belt, but much cloudy weather prevailed, and while the rainfall was mostly light in northern districts it was very considerable or excessive in many eastern and western sections. Conditions were decidedly unfavorable for cotton and progress was generally rather poor or the crop deteriorated, except in restricted areas where it was about the average. No material change in cotton occurred in North Carolina, but while blooming and fruiting about the average in northern South Carolina, the crop deteriorated in the central-southern portions where rust and boll rot are prevalent."

"The progress and condition of cotton were rather poor in Arkansas and generally rather poor or it deteriorated in Oklahoma on account of too much rain and inadequate sunshine. Cotton was unfavorably affected in Louisiana and Florida on account of continued excessive rainfall. The condition in Arkansas and Oklahoma continues about the average to very good. Cotton deteriorated in Texas, except in lower coast, southwestern, and a few south-central counties where moderate rainfall permitted good progress. The condition of cotton is about the average to excellent in the southern third of Texas, but mostly poor to about the average elsewhere."

"HYPOCRISY" IS LAID TO SENATOR HARDING

New York, September 9.—The democratic national committee today issued statements here charging Senator Harding with hypocrisy. Senator Harding's statement in his St. Paul speech yesterday that he favored a farm loan act.

Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, chairman of the democratic speakers' bureau, issued the statement here, which said:

"Harding knows that the act passed by a democratic congress, is not functioning today because a republican congress in the closing hours of its last session failed to pass legislation proposed by a democratic congress."

"This act was attacked by mortgage companies and declared unconstitutional by the courts. Then, while the case was pending in the supreme court, the republican party, including Senator Harding, refused to co-operate with democratic members of the house and senate to enact proposed legislation."

"Harding's present attitude is one of bold frontistry—preaching in favor of a measure which he had attacked in the senate."

Effort to Placate Farmers.—Chicago, September 9.—Congressman Frank Pomeroy, chairman of the central western headquarters of the democratic national committee, today issued the following statement on Senator Harding's speech at the Michigan State fair grounds yesterday:

Senator Harding's St. Paul speech was an adroit effort to placate farmers who remembered what he said when the bill for $2 wheat was on its passage and then, as he does not undertake to deny it now, that dollar wheat makes a very profitable occupation, and that if the qualities of American patriotism are such that they will guarantee the American farmer a price for his wheat in the face of world famine, then there is not patriotism enough in this country to win the war."

Senator Harding said at that time, as the congressional record for July 18, 1917, shows, that it would be agreeable to him to strike at the manifest greed in some agricultural sections. But he now sidesteps by declaring that no public servant would dare to say he believed in dollar wheat amid the present wilderness which is prevailing today."

When the senator made that speech, the United States was at war. . . . The farmer was in worse luck for labor than he is now. If Senator Harding thought dollar wheat was profitable then, and the dollar was profitable then, wheat was greedy, he will have difficulty in explaining it away now to the hard-headed farmer of the wheat belt, however rosy the program he may lay out on paper."

G. O. P. RAISED CASH ON THE Y. M. C. A. PLAN

some belligerency toward republican witnesses, especially paid workmen, was considered of the feminine witness. He asked if she was active in the Chicago drive just begun to raise $500,000 in a week, she said she was not in any way connected with this movement.

In reply to another question, she said:

"It is rather new for women to contribute to a campaign fund, but since they assume the privilege they also assume the responsibility."

"Have you any sinister purpose in raising these funds, Mrs. Bair?" asked Senator Kenyon.

"No," she replied, "the best purpose in the world."

Senator Pomeroy broke in to say, humorously:

"Is that to be considered a reflection on us democrats?"

"No, it is not," she said, as she left the stand, giving the entire committee a bright smile.

Democrats and Postmasters.—At the start of the day's session there was evidence that Charles Boeschstein, of Edwardsville, Ill., democratic national committeeman for the state, had sent letters to postmasters asking voluntary contributions to his party's campaign fund. The evidence was presented to the committee by William C. Farlow, of Augusta, Ill., a farmer.

It developed that Mr. Farlow had volunteered his testimony and that his evidence consisted of five letters addressed to Joseph S. Coffman, postmaster at Augusta, and a written statement from the latter certifying that he had given the letters to Mr. Bair.

The committee agreed that the evidence was not entirely competent in that form, but it was received and read. The first letter was dated January 22, there was another, on March 4 and three in April. All were signed with Mr. Boeschstein's name and dated at his home town of Edwardsville. The missives emphasized that "contributions must be voluntary" and one of the letters was rubber stamped for delivery "at home address only."

Mr. Farlow said the postmaster was a progressive and added that he was himself a republican "and proud of it."

He also said the postmaster had won appointment by a civil service examination after the democratic incumbent resigned a year ago.

Mr. Blair was on the stand the rest of the morning and at the start of the afternoon session. The Illinois and Ohio chairmen followed. Mr. Kinney's testimony being a fairly brief one.

Kelly turned in a list showing the quotas, places and payments from the different counties in Ohio. He said that in some ten counties there were no additional funds to be used for county purposes and Senator Reed pointed out that in the case of Toledo and Cleveland these additional funds brought the totals to $100,000 and $400,000 respectively, the amounts named for those places in the Pittsburgh speech of Governor Cox.

Chuckles and Gales of Laughter.—Senator Pomeroy asked whether contributions could be reimbursed if the Ohio total went beyond the figures set by the national committee. Mr. Kelly said his duties were confined to collecting and transmitting the money to the national treasurer and he did not know what that official did with it.

Mr. Owen's testimony brought first chuckles, then gales of laughter from the committee and audience. He began by identifying himself to Senator Reed as a "professional money digger," and said he had been engaged in that work for 20 years. He was asked at once about the substitute for form 101, but would not acknowledge original knowledge of it. Finally he told Senator Reed he might have made suggestions about every paragraph in the document, but knew nothing about it in its completed form.

He identified several paragraphs as "orthodox," but disclaimed knowledge of every one referring to city quotas, campaigns and chairmen. He said he had attended a meeting in Chicago, at which the document was supposed to have been discussed, but "he" after ten minutes to speeches by Mr. Upham and Will Hays, chairman of the national committee.

Mr. Owen said he had spent about five months in organization work in the five states he supervised, about half that time being spent in Ohio. He was asked to describe his duties and said he visited county chairmen and state directors and "looked over the field."

"Did you make suggestions to them," was one question. "No, sir, very seldom. I have been told it is better than my word," was the enigmatic reply.

When the witness declared he did know the quotas of the various towns he visited, Senator Reed indicated he had no more questions.

Senator Pomeroy then brought out the age of the system for collecting republican funds and Senator Pomeroy took up the examination.

Mr. Owen greeted the new question as a fellow Ohioan and told him Mr. Kelly's scheme of doubling the Ohio county quotas had not been followed in Kentucky, Indiana, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Question of "Bunch."—"Don't you think they rather bunch the people of our state by doubling their quotas?" smilingly inquired Senator Pomeroy.

"Ohio bunches the country by setting all the candidates for president in the state," Mr. Owen replied. "Which only shows that when they want a good man they come to Ohio," rejoined Senator Pomeroy.

"Thank you for the compliment," supplemented Mr. Blair, assistant to Fred W. Upham, republican national treasurer.

Reading from a document produced by Mr. Blair, which he said was sent out in lieu of the much discussed "form 101," Senator Reed brought out that the treasurer's office planned to organize county drives in 54 cities, three more than the Ohio governor mentioned when he gave his list of 51 at Pittsburgh.

From the same document Senator Reed read that the local chairman appointed in each city was to "accept the quota placed upon the city by the national treasurer."

"But he never did that to my knowledge," Mr. Blair interjected.

He explained that the plan "in his mind" was for the state chairman of the ways and means committee to select local chairmen in cities who then would be confirmed by Mr. Upham "to make it official" and that Mr. Upham should pass on to the local chairman a city quota suggested by the state head.

Refused by Superiors.—Blair's testimony at many points showed that the ideas which he had in his mind were rejected by his superiors when placed on paper, which was the fate of "form 101."

Mr. Blair produced a copy of that form and when it was compared to the copy of the same form which Governor Cox had sent to the committee by Edmund Moore, his personal representative, the governor's copy was found to be incomplete.

An entire paragraph which appeared in Mr. Blair's copy was omitted from that sent by the governor. The paragraph suggested that contributions of $5,000 and $10,000 be accepted, removing the $1,000 limit fixed by Chairman Hays. The copy furnished by the governor merely suggested that contributions from $5,000 upward be received.

While he planned drives in 54 cities, Mr. Blair said, it was found impossible to carry out the program because of local conditions in some places. He mentioned Minneapolis, St. Paul, Dallas and Houston as cities where the drives were abandoned because it was "not expedient," he said, to start them.

"Our experience in Atlanta was no so encouraging," he explained, referring to the testimony of C. V. McClure, Georgia state chairman, about the failure of the drive there.

"You did, though, contemplate organizing drives in 54 cities?" Senator Reed asked.

"Yes, sir."

"So, if Governor Cox or any other man charged you had plans for organizing in 51 cities, he simply under-stated, didn't he?"

"Yes, sir."

Plan Used for Drives.—Mr. Blair explained that the campaign plan was commonly used for money drives for hospitals, Y. M. C. A. buildings and in war drives and that all his assistants had worked in such activities and knew the general procedure.

Senator Reed finally obtained assent to proposition that the national ways and means committee appointed the state chairmen, then sent paid workers to aid these chairmen and finally by taking money raised by those agencies approved their acts.

Mr. Blair explained that the leaders of the Cleveland drive asked that they be allowed to raise $150,000 as that city's part of the Ohio quota of $450,000 with the proviso that if they went to $400,000 the difference would be applied to the purposes of the county committee in Cuyahoga county.

Mr. Blair said he discouraged underwriting of city quotas and was then asked to explain a "flash from the field" in August 16 bulletin which stated:

"Cincinnati business men have underwritten that city's quota, the full amount to be delivered by September 1."

"I consider that just 'bull,'" said Mr. Blair.

"Bull" is just expanded truth," defined the witness, and the merriest lasted until Senator Kenyon rapped for order.

Union League Club.—Senator Reed asked Blair about luncheon at the Union League club July 6. Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, was present and spoke. The witness said, Fred W. Upham, the national treasurer, was host.

Mr. Blair denied that the question of city quotas was discussed. The substitute for form 101 was given out at this luncheon, he said, but no copies of 101 were present.

The witness said that there were two phases of the fund drive, first, an attempt to get contributions from $100 to $1,000.

Mr. Kelly said he, with the aid of Fred Miller and Robert F. Wolf, state chairmen, divided up Ohio's quota of $450,000 among the 58 counties.

Senator Pomeroy called attention to the fact that a quota list furnished by Mr. Kelly fixed Cuyahoga county's share, including the city of Cleveland, at $250,000, while Dudley S. Blossom, Cleveland leader, testified yesterday he was trying to raise $400,000.

The Cleveland committee added the extra $50,000 for their own purposes, Mr. Kelly said.

"Did you tell Mr. Blossom, or any one else on the Cleveland committee, that when you asked them to raise $350,000 you only wanted half that much?" Senator Pomeroy asked.

"No, sir, but we intimated that a compromise could be arranged," Mr. Kelly replied.

Mr. Kelly said that the quota for Toledo and Lucas county would be returned for use of the republican county committee. Senator Reed said this tallied with the $100,000 quota which Governor Cox's list gave for Toledo.

The Doubled Quotas.—Mr. Kelly told Senator Reed that when the doubled quotas were presented to county chairmen, some objected that the figures were too high, others promised to do the best they could, but the "regular fellows" went out and got the money.

Asked to explain a report of only $100 from Tumbull county in the light of information that W. H. B. Ward and A. B. Flora, steel manufacturers, had given $1,000 each.

Kelly said that if those men had contributed their gifts probably had been made through the Youngstown organization. He said that fifty-one of the eighty-eight counties in the state had reported pledges and that money was transmitted by him to the national committee immediately upon its receipt.

"My office is just a clearing house," he explained.

G. DeForest Kinney, of Peoria, Ill., state ways and means chairman, testified he was asked to raise $150,000 in the state outside Cook County, and had divided up the quota among the 100 down-state counties without assistance from the national committee.

The Michigan Quota.—R. K. Thompson, a Cincinnati newspaper man who is republican financial director for Illinois, and Carl D. Fritzsche, executive secretary of the Michigan ways and means committee, testified at the night session. Mr. Fritzsche said the Michigan quota was $250,000 for the republican national committee, and $100,000 for state purposes. In dividing the quota among the congressional districts, the figures were boosted, he said, on the theory that it was necessary to ask for more than he expected to get. He asked for $388,400 to get $250,000 for the national committee.

"Another case of 'expanded truth,'" Senator Pomeroy remarked.

Mr. Fritzsche said he asked for $200,000 in Wayne county, including the city of Detroit. Of this sum, $20,558 had been raised in the last Saturday night. In the entire state, including Wayne county, cash collected and unpaid pledges total $170,033.65.

The witness said the cost of campaigning in Michigan was very high and cited the expenses of a county meeting at Battle Creek. The opera house rental for one night was $75, he said, the band cost $100, decoration $50, and the speaker's traveling expenses $100. On that basis, he pointed out, it would cost $25,000 to hold one meeting in each county in the state.

Load Freight Cars To Full Capacity, Shippers Are Urged

Washington, September 9.—Manufacturers and shippers in general were urged to assist American railroads in making fullest use of their rolling stock in an appeal issued today by the railroad committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

By co-ordination to maximum capacity, and cutting down delays in loading and unloading at terminals, the committee said, shippers can accomplish the same effect that would be secured if $25,000 cars could be added immediately to railroad equipment. Under present economic conditions, it was added, the railroads cannot obtain the cars at reasonable prices or make terminal improvements that might expedite their movement.

An average freight car spends 37 per cent of its time awaiting loading or unloading by shippers or receivers, the committee estimated. 43 per cent moving through terminals or awaiting movement; 11 per cent in transit moving between terminals, and 9 per cent in repair shops. It was suggested that shippers voluntarily reduce the time cars are kept by them to twenty-four hours which practice, if adopted, the committee said, would produce the same improvement in transportation facilities that an addition of 350,000 cars would involve.

The average freight car capacity is 41.6 tons, while the average actual load carried is 27.8 tons.

Jones Heads Negro Baptists.—Columbus, Ohio, September 9.—Rev. Edward P. Jones, of Evanston, Ill., was elected national president of the Negro National Baptist Convention in session here at today's meeting. The educational board reported on plans to raise $250,000 for the negro national Baptist Theological and Training Seminary at Nashville, Tenn.

Mail Plane Wrecked.—Elkhart, Ind., September 9.—The Chicago-New York United States mail plane, driven by Lieutenant Riddesbarger, was wrecked in landing in a cornfield near here this morning. The pilot was not injured.

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was a awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. PAUL PAPERHOUSE, 1835 Stone St., Sandusky, Ohio.

One by one leading spokesmen for the republican party are publicly hedging on the league of nations issue in the national campaign and covertly trying to ease the party from a position which they see now is untenable.

The last one of the republican "big guns" to say in effect that the party's anti-league of nations platform declaration doesn't mean what it says is Governor Coolidge, Senator Harding's running mate.

He has not come out boldly and said that he indorses the democratic position on the league questions, but he has said what means practically the same thing.

We quote from his speech at Portland, Maine, last Wednesday—

"I believe humanity would welcome the creation of an international association for conferences, and a world court whose verdicts upon justiciable questions this country, in common with all nations, would be willing and able to uphold."

So Governor Coolidge is in favor of a league of nations, only he wants it called an "international association" instead of an international "league!"

A few days ago Elihu Root, who is now in Europe helping to formulate a world court to function within and by authority of the league of nations, expressed open disappointment at a speech delivered by Governor Harding in support of the republican party's official attitude of opposition to the league of nations principle—a position by the way, from which Governor Harding has since receded.

At about the same time the republican Philadelphia Public Ledger declared editorially that "the league of nations has ceased to be a practical issue in this campaign," notwithstanding the fact that last June the republican party chieftains dared the democrats to make the national campaign on the league as the "supreme issue!"

Two weeks ago last Saturday Senator Lodge, the dominating spirit at the republican national convention—over which he presided as permanent chairman—and author of the nullifying "Lodge reservations," declared in a public address in Boston that "above all things, we should not bind our presidential candidate to any pledge of what he should do with the league question seven months hence."

Then, last Sunday George W.
Wickersham, republican party leader, who was attorney general in President's Taft's cabinet, held a conference with Senator Harding at the latter's home and immediately following the pow-wow he issued a statement to the effect that the republican presidential candidate would not "wholly and finally reject the league."

It is apparent that after a careful canvass of public sentiment, the republicans have ascertained that the people of this country are not opposed to the great principle underlying the league of nations.

They do not dare go before the people on the issue they forced only a few months ago. They are perceptibly "back-tracking!"

Home ought to look good to the poles, and it might be the part of wisdom to stick around it more.

In order to get among the world's prayer for its daily bread must be backed up by work.

MR. WATSON'S VICTORY.

At first glance it would be natural to assume that Wednesday's primary results showed an overwhelming opposition on the part of Georgia democrats, to the league of nations, as indorsed in the democratic national platform.

The avowed opposition of Mr.
Watson to any kind of a league,
and the fact that he made his campaign primarily on that issue, would warrant such a conclusion.

And yet, analysis of the primary shows that in the congressional districts, in which in not less than five districts the issue was carried direct to the people by candidates who adopted the Watson platform, the fight against the league was lost.

In the tenth district, President Sam L. Olive, of the state senate, acted as permanent chairman of the May 18 convention as a Watson delegate, subsequently announced for congress on a Watson platform, spoke from the same platform with Mr. Watson all over the district, and yet Congressman Carl Vinson, of Baldwin, who stands flatfooted behind the administration, and for the platform of the national party, swept the district, carrying by large majorities the counties that rolled up, on the contrary, equally large majorities for Mr. Watson.

The same thing was true of the contest in the ninth. Congressman Bell, who is an administration democrat, made his fight for renominaton uncompromisingly on the party platform. He was opposed by John I. Kelley, who was one of Mr. Watson's floor leaders in the May 18 convention, ran for congress on a Watson platform, spoke from the same platform with Mr. Watson, and yet while a majority of the counties in that district gave pluralities to the Mc-Duffie candidate, his lieutenant was overwhelmingly defeated, the voters again indorsing administration democracy.

In the third district Congressman Crisp made his fight for re-election on the platform of his party. He was vigorously opposed by Gordon Jones, an avowed Watson follower, and a former Watson leader, and yet the voters overwhelmingly defeated him.

In the fifth district, Mr. Blackburn ran for congress against Congressman Upshaw, who stood flatfootedly behind the administration and his party platform. Mr. Blackburn was campaign manager for Mr. Watson in the April primary and violently assailed the league of nations, making that, indeed, his dominating issue.

And yet while Watson, as an anti-league swept the district, including Fulton, Mr. Blackburn was defeated in a sweeping victory for Congressman Upshaw, notwithstanding the fact that Alexander, the other candidate, divided the vote of those who favor the principle of the league.

In the first, Congressman Overstreet, an avowed and consistent administration democrat, carried his district over Solicitor Slater, who ran on a straightout anti-league issue, although again, in this instance, Mr. Watson carried the district.

The same condition prevailed as to the contest in the twelfth, in which Congressman Larsen defeated Peacock; and in the seventh, in which Congressman Lee defeated Porter, by an overwhelming vote; and in the eighth, in which Judge Brand, a consistent administration democrat, defeated two opponents.

So, while the victory of Mr.
Watson cannot be minimized, there is no doubt that the defeat of every candidate for congress who made common cause with him is not without significance as far as approval of the league of nations, and of the record of our congressmen is concerned.

At the recent state convention, dominated by Mr. Watson, an effort was made by the Palmer delegates to indorse the record of Georgia congressmen and that of the democratic administration.

These same congressmen took the matter before the people and succeeded in having their record indorsed by their constituents, and yet Mr. Watson unquestionably has the satisfaction of having had his attitude indorsed at the same time.

Undoubtedly back of Mr. Watson's triumph is the strong personality of the man and his grip on the rank and file of the voters.

Whatever those who differ with Mr. Watson may think, and however potent their arguments against him may be, he clearly demonstrated his marvelous hold on the masses in Wednesday's primary.

If Mr. Watson will put his undoubted ability behind the task of leading his people, as his senator, along safe, sane and sound lines, he will win within his power to accomplish a great work.

HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

ON BEING THREATENED.

When a doctor examines a patient and then announces that the patient has "threatening fever,"
the doctor is marking time, passing the buck, treading water and waiting for the patient to turn up. He is not deceiving the family, understand. He is merely playing possum for the patient and for himself. Naturally he orders the patient to remain in bed, and that he certainly best interests the patient.

The reason why it is always best for one with any acute illness accompanying with fever, to remain in bed is simply because REST helps to resist or overcome inflammation, and the body's own defense mechanism helps in the repair of the bone. To needlessly work lungs, liver, and other organs when one is ill with even a mild infection like sore throat or coryza, is a stupid and foolish thing to do. It is flinging defiance to nature and inviting trouble.

Another very good reason why one developing any kind of respiratory infection, anything accompanied with fever, should remain in bed is because these acute illnesses are exceedingly contagious at the stage of onset—more likely to spread like wildfire at this stage than after the illness is well established. When the patient is in bed by your physician for cancer, of course, he is not to get up, and he is not to DISTURB HIMSELF.

SAMPLES of his infection among other people, and he is not to spread his infection among other people who might come in contact with him. He is not to get up, and

TERRELL IN CLASH WITH DR. DURHAM

child, of every color, be given a chance in the battle of the years. Here Professor Dykes stated that double sessions are the worst feature of the negro schools, and that in view of the fact that negroes can enter local colleges at $18 a year from the extra grades already provided, which will care for 250 pupils, he felt that the board should do all in its power to care for the grammar classes. He stated that it would require ten new school buildings to take the five negro classes out of the basement rooms, and continued that he believed an ordinance should be passed preventing the use of basement rooms for school purposes.

Terrell Speaks.
At this point Commissioner W. H. Terrell spoke of his efforts of seven years to secure high school facilities for the negroes and declared that at one time the board of education had tentatively adopted a plan that would furnish high school classes with industrial training and domestic science that would be the best of the two worlds. He said that this plan brought forth a howl from Dr. H. H. Proctor and other members of the city, and was given up.

Mr. Terrell then spoke of the question of taxes and the fact that Durham and Mr. Egan had based their pleas for colored educational facilities for the colored race on the fact that the board of education had tentatively adopted a plan that would furnish high school classes with industrial training and domestic science that would be the best of the two worlds. He said that this plan brought forth a howl from Dr. H. H. Proctor and other members of the city, and was given up.

Mr. Terrell said that he objected to the way the negroes demanded things, and declared it would be impossible to satisfy their demands. "It is required most," said he, "is a campaign of education among the leaders of the race, and to teach them to co-operate with this board instead of antagonizing us and making unreasonable demands." Dr. Durham and Mr. Egan, at this point, disclaimed any intention of making undue demands upon the board, and said that the negro leaders had conferred with him and not shown any such spirit.

Demands, Not Requests.
They were told by President Fred Winburn that negroes had appeared before the board of education more than one occasion, though upon other subjects, and made demands, not requests.

Mr. Terrell continued that the negroes had, through the influence of the board, been able to secure things which they asked for. "We have provided the means for giving what they asked for," he said, "and we have provided the means for giving what they asked for."

Dr. Durham here took the floor, saying he wished to correct a misapprehension created by Mr. Terrell as to the demands made by the negro leaders, and said that the negroes were not "demanding" high school education, and sought to correct the misapprehension by Mr. Terrell concerning the "taxes" paid by the negro. Mr. Terrell answered him by saying that the negroes did not pay enough taxes to provide for the grammar education they received.

It was at this juncture that the fight between Mr. Terrell and Dr. Durham took place. Dr. Durham insisting that Mr. Terrell had not stated the facts, while the commissioner retorted that he had.

Will Name Committee.

Following the agreement to meet within the next few days and quietly discuss the matter of higher education for the negro, President Winburn stated that he would appoint a committee to confer in a closed session with Dr. Durham, Mr. Egan and others. This closed the incident, Dr. Durham and his party leaving the board room.

Another matter brought before the board of education was that of the Milton Avenue school, which is now in course of construction. A number of citizens appeared and complained of conditions there, and insisted upon the immediate completion of two rooms of the building and an auditorium. Prof. Dykes stated that the work on the building had proceeded as rapidly as possible, and that it would take four weeks to complete it. It was decided that the construction department would make every effort to hurry the work, and that the session at Milton Avenue would not begin until the building is made ready, which will be in about four weeks.

At the suggestion of the president, the Harold Film company, of New Orleans, demonstrated one of the motion picture projectors designed for educational purposes.

Mr. Winburn stated that he believed there was wonderful opportunity in the use of these machines in Atlanta schools at very little expense. "The government has millions of feet of films which are only awaiting our demand for use. I believe we can finance the purchase of these machines for the schools and allow them to repay us by having entertainments. As each school finishes its payments the machines would become its property."

Mr. Terrell moved that the committee be appointed to consider the proposition of purchasing the machines and report at the next meeting, and the president appointed Commissioner W. H. Terrell, Superintendent Dykes and himself.

The commissioners agreed to follow the program adopted by the committee to have the machines in the schools every morning at 8:30 to 8:40 o'clock, and W. H. Terrell and Paul Fleming were appointed to select passages to be read during the first months.

Teachers Resign.
On the recommendation of Superintendent Dykes the following resignations, leaves of absence and furloughs were favorably passed upon by the commissioners:

Resignations—Sophia Sterling, Girls' High; Mary Andrews, Girls' High; Tech High school; H. E. Cabral, Commercial High; Winnifred Baxter, Girls' High; Mrs. M. L. Smith, boys' special class; Mrs. O. N. Governor Stewart, of Montana, to other audiences, all of which gave hearty receptions. Admirers at Helena, where he spoke before going to Anaconda for a 6 o'clock theater meeting and returning to Butte this evening, put aboard the governor's train a quarter of elk for a game drive, and on Saturday, Bellingham, Tacoma and Seattle were the principal points visited.

Cox Urges the League.
In his address at Helena, Governor Cox outlined what he declared were practical material benefits to flow from the league.

"It has recently been figured," said the governor, "that the cost of one battleship would reclaim two million acres of land."

"Multiply this by 48, the number of states adopting the plan of one battleship for each state, and you have a staggering total, and you properly applied, the answer to the problem of the world's food supply, the production for sustenance of human life. The expenditure required in total would reclaim 150,000 square miles of waste. It would build ten permanently paved arteries entirely across the United States.

"Think of this in terms of reclamation of arid and waste lands, if you will, and think what it would mean to have one million men, exclusive of thousands required in shipyards and ammunition plants, turning their activities to the production of the necessities of life, rather than to employment in the creation of agencies for the destruction of life."

How America Is Regarded.
Urging the league, the governor told his Helena audience that the United States is looked upon "as a nation of quitters, self-prosperous and self-satisfied, while our associates as well as our enemies in Europe are starving to death."

"America cannot enter into the period of prosperity to which we are entitled," he said, "until the doubt and distrust and the growing hatred against us, created by the apostle of hate in the senatorial oligarchy, have been removed."

Governor Cox also inveighed against a separate peace with Germany, and urged world disarmament. Republican financing and the "senatorial oligarchy" came in for more criticism and the candidate reiterated his preaching of progress as against reactionism.

LA FOLLETTE'S MAN LEADS IN WISCONSIN

Milwaukee, September 9.—John J. Blaine, state attorney general, tonight led Roy P. Wilcox, of Eau Claire, his nearest competitor for five opponents in the race for the republican gubernatorial nomination, according to practically complete unofficial returns from Tuesday's election.

Blaine was endorsed by Senator Robert La Follette, and the non-partisan league.

The primary election took place at 10 o'clock, and was held at the Wisconsin State Capitol, where the returns were being counted.

CHATHAM HAS LIVELY LOCAL PRIMARY RACE

Savannah, Ga., September 9.—(Special).—The local election in Chatham was hardly less interesting than the state election. Bitterly fought campaigns were waged for several offices. Winners in the several contested races, as shown by the figures completed this morning are: Ordinary Henry McAlpin, incumbent; Merritt Dixon, sheriff superior court, re-elected; George T. Pate, tax collector, defeating the incumbent, Fred Cier; H. Y. Righton, coroner, re-elected, opposed by W. G. Sullivan; Julius C. Seiple, re-elected sheriff city court; John Rourke, Jr., judge municipal court, re-elected.

All the old county commissioners were re-elected except one member. Harvey Granger, who was defeated by W. V. Davis. This race was very bitterly fought. Judge Peter W. Meldrum, of the superior court, was unopposed, as were the several county officers incumbent. The legislative and state senate ticket were unopposed. John E. Foy was chosen senator from the first; D. S. Atkinson, E. O. Hunter and J. G. Valentino, representatives.

Brooklyn Assumes Leadership In National League Struggle; Cleveland Strengthens Lead

New York, September 9.—Brooklyn hopped into the lead in the National pennant race today by defeating St. Louis, while Cincinnati slipped to second place as the result of splitting a double-header with Boston. New York, in third place, lost some ground by dropping a close game to the Chicago Cubs.

Cleveland, in the American league, gained a few points by defeating New York and sending the Yankees to third place, while the Chicago White Sox won from Boston and climbed into second place.

By their victory over St. Louis, the Superbas boosted their percentage four points, giving them an advantage of two points over the Cincinnati team. The champions, al-

T.MURPHY IS AGAIN WINNER

Hartford, Conn., September 9.—Peter Manning, champion 4-year-old trotter, this afternoon won the classic $10,000 Charter Oak stake, the feature of the Grand Circuit meeting here. His victory was an easy one, the son of Azoff easily having the speed of the field, and coming home on the stretch with a lead of nearly two lengths in each of the two heats fought. It was Murphy's seventh victory of the meeting, and the third consecutive year he has won the Charter Oak stake.

Billy Crozier, the local driver, was the big winner of the afternoon, taking first with Ethel Chimes, a Murphy pacer, in the bitterly fought 2:12 pace, and winning the 216 pace with Billy Sunday, a member of the Pitman stable. The free-for-all 3-year-old trotting colts was unfinished at the end of the afternoon, with the two entries from the Murphy stable successfully keeping the favorite, Edna Early, from winning the event. In the first heat, Crozier, with Ethel Chimes, carried Edna Early to the half in 1:00%, and Symbol S. Forrest, with Murphy in the sulky, won the heat in 2:02%.

In the second heat, Edna Early won after a whipping finish, with only a length separating the first five horses to cross the wire. Ethel Chimes won the next two heats and the race.

Hartford, Conn., September 9.—Drivers Cox, Crossman and Servell brought their colts out for the fourth heat of the 3-year-old event, despite the fact that the judges and timers had departed. They lined up for the start and scored down, getting the word from several newspaper men who were in the stand. Cox's mare, Jane the Great, won the heat. The drivers are said to be adverse to starting their colts tomorrow, as they are planning to race in Syracuse next Monday.

MOBILE HERE FOR BATTLES

BY JOE BUTTERLY.

Pennant possibilities begin to take a trend Atlantaward after the duet of victories chalked up to the world, and his manager, Jack Kearns, arrived here today to complete negotiations of the promoters of a match between the Travelers and the Pelicans from first place. Yesterday also boosted the chance of the Cracker team to conclude an agreement on terms of the contest. He added that Dempsey was in fine shape, slated at his recent success in the bout with Miske, and looking forward confidently to meeting Smith.

Bears Here Today.
After the series here, the Bears and Cracker teams friendly relations for their ensemble journey to the fair of the Bears, where four more games will terminate the baseball activities between these two clubs for the current series, and when friendly relations will cease for the time being. The four contests will be played within a space of three days, a double-header being set for the first day of the arrival of the factions in Mobile.

Atlanta spirit and Atlanta publicity for whirlwind finishes have combined to make the last lap of the Southern race interesting. Confronted with the Travelers' maintained prowess, the break of the Pelicans and the consistency of the Bears, the colossal high-powered comeback of the Cracker have injected a huge portion of uncertainty into the race. The Cracker are a club of spurs and have gained leads only to lose them, but without the holes only to stage a brilliant recoup of losses.

Pels vs. Barons.
After the umpire called the game yesterday, the New Orleans club were liberated until this afternoon and at the same time were denied all privilege of revenge, as this was the last scheduled contest between the two clubs. The Pelicans will be engaged in another important engagement this afternoon with the Barons.

The Travelers have an abroad series beginning today, but this handicap is offset by the opposing faction being the Lookouts. The series will be of three days' duration. This series is a return engagement for a series last week, in which all of the honors went to the tribe from Little Rock. In fact, this bunch of games was chiefly instrumental in putting the Travelers in the position of No. 1 in the front rank.

All of the advantages of the race are in the Travelers' favor. Schedule, lead and condition. The pitching staff is going good, and the hitters are chiming in at length with their willows. They will end their season with four games on the home lot with the Nashville Volunteers.

It is doubtful if the Cracker can overtake the lead held by the Southern circuit representation from Arkansas, but the probability of finishing in second place is at no great odds. If the weaker clubs develop a strong defense in the remainder of the schedule, the Cracker may nose the leaders out of their self-conscious perch.

Champ Dempsey Is Making Plans For Another Bout

New York, September 9.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, and his manager, Jack Kearns, arrived here today to complete negotiations of the promoters of a match between the Travelers and the Pelicans from first place. Yesterday also boosted the chance of the Cracker team to conclude an agreement on terms of the contest. He added that Dempsey was in fine shape, slated at his recent success in the bout with Miske, and looking forward confidently to meeting Smith.

GEN. PERSHING QUEST OF SENATOR HARDING

Marion, Ohio, September 9.—Senator Harding returned to Marion tonight from his first campaign trip and prepared to resume a front porch program which is expected to keep him here during the remainder of September.

Both the nominee and his political managers declared themselves greatly pleased at the practical results of the three-day journey, and it was indicated that announcement might be made soon of other trips to be made in the last month of the campaign.

On the return today from Minnesota, where the principal address of the trip was made yesterday at the state fair grounds, the senator made two more short rear platform speeches. The first was at Janesville, Wis., where he lauded the influence of the small town in maintaining national tranquility. The other, a plea that the nation be put "back on the right track," was delivered to a cheering crowd of several hundred at Rochester, Ind. In all, during the trip, Senator Harding made eight speeches, four of them being made from the platform of his private car. Besides, he shook hands with hundreds who crowded around him at the way stations and during his visit to the Twin Cities of Minnesota.

General John J. Pershing boarded the senator's party at Chicago today and during the afternoon trip across Indiana and Ohio shared some of the popular applause with the nominee. On his way back to Washington from a vacation in the west, the general called at the Harding car to pay his respects during a short stop in Chicago, but would devote his whole attention to the army reorganization now under way.

General Pershing said he expected to take no part in the campaign, but would devote his whole attention to the army reorganization now under way.

From Chicago east the senator's private car was attached to a regular passenger train, and as it approached Marion the nominee and Senator Harding went into the dining car and held a public reception, during which scores of the passengers filled in to shake hands with their two distinguished fellow travelers. The general spent the night at the Harding home here and will resume his journey to Washington tomorrow.

Several front porch speeches will be made by Senator Harding during the remainder of the next three weeks. He is expected to begin about the first of October. It is understood his trip to New York will be made during the last part of that month, on a date yet to be fixed, but the question of what other cities will be included in his schedule has not been decided.

Tomorrow he will speak here to several delegations of negroes from Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Columbus and other cities.

THREE ROBBERS RAID NEW ORLEANS BANK

New Orleans, September 9.—Three armed men entered the Industrial Bank of New Orleans today and stole $15,000. The robbers, who were seen by several witnesses, fled in a car and escaped with four thousand dollars in currency, which they took from the teller's counter.

Two of the robbers made an unsuccessful attempt to open the door to a safe which contained more than $15,000. Within five minutes from the time they entered they departed in an automobile.

Anderson, S. C., September 9.—A safe in the Bank of Pendleton, S. C., was blown away Wednesday morning and between $500 and $600 in cash and liberty bonds worth between $5,000 and $10,000 stolen, it became known today.

Canton, Ohio, September 9.—The First National Bank of Louisville, a village eight miles east of here, was held up and robbed by six armed bandits at noon today. They secured about $1,500 after covering two girls with revolvers.

DEPORTED RADICALS PUT TO WORK IN RUSSIA

Washington, September 9.—Russian radicals deported from the United States have come in contact with the soviet expeditionary commission with not altogether satisfactory results, so far as the deportees are concerned, the state department officials here today were told.

All of those deported, on reaching Russia, were ordered to work, and were given a choice of three departments' activities; they were reminded that the soviet authorities had an extraordinary commission to enforce its decrees. The result was that some of those who had returned to Russia under compulsion and had indicated a dislike for work, were sent to repairing railroad beds, some to manual labor, and some were placed under arrest and are now held subject to the orders of the extraordinary commission.

The British are paying considerable attention to the erection of enormous rigid airships. One of these is said to contain 1,600,000 parts.

A PROCLAMATION.
Submitting a proposed amendment to the Constitution of Georgia, to be voted on at the general election, to be held in November, 1920, to amend Paragraph 1, Section 12, of Article 6, of the Constitution of Georgia, relative to increase in salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and Superior Courts.

By his excellency
HUGH M. DORSEY, Governor.

Whereas, the General Assembly, at its session in 1920, proposed an amendment to the Constitution of this State, as set forth in an act approved August 17, 1920, to-wit:

SALARIES OF JUSTICES OF SUPREME COURT AND JUDGES OF COURTS OF APPEALS.

No. 778.
An Act to amend Paragraph 1, Section 12, of Article 6, of the Constitution of Georgia insofar as the same relates to salaries of Justices of the Supreme Court and of Judges of the Court of Appeals and of Judges of the Superior Courts, so as to increase the salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court, the Judges of the Court of Appeals, the Judges of the Superior Courts and for other purposes.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, that paragraph 1, of section 12, of article 6, of the constitution of the state of Georgia, relating to salaries of the Justices of the Supreme Court, and of the Judges of the Court of Appeals, and of the Judges of the Superior Courts, be and the same is hereby amended so as to provide that the Justices of the Supreme Court each shall have out of the treasury of the state salary of $7,000 per annum; the Judges of the Court of Appeals each shall have out of the treasury of the state salary of $7,000 per annum; the Judges of the Superior Court each shall have out of the treasury of the state salary of $5,000 per annum; provided that the county of Chatham shall, from its treasury, pay to the Judge of the Superior Court of the eastern circuit $3,000 per annum; said payments are hereby declared to be a part of the court expenses of said county, and shall be made to the judge now in office, as well as his successors. Provided further, That the board of county commissioners of Fulton county, or such other board of persons as may from time to time exercise the administrative powers of Fulton county, shall have power and authority to pay the judges of the Superior Court of Fulton county, in addition to the salaries paid by the state, as said administrative authority or authorities may deem advisable, and the amounts so paid are declared to be a part of the court expenses of said county. Provided further, That the board of county commissioners of the counties of Clarke, Floyd, Sumter, Bibb and Richmond, or such other board or person as may from time to time exercise the administrative powers of said several counties, may supplement from their respective counties' treasuries the salaries of the judges of the circuits of which they are a part by such sum as may be necessary with salary paid each of said judges from the state treasury to make a salary of $8,000 each per annum of such judges; and such payments are declared to be a part of the court expenses of said counties, and such payments shall be made to the judge now in office, as well as to his successors. Provided further, That the county of Fulton may supplement the salary of the judge of the Stone Mountain circuit, or the judges of such other circuit as may be hereafter required to regularly provide therein, for additional services rendered in the Superior Court of said county, such sums as will, with the salary paid said judge from the state treasury, make a salary of $8,000 per annum; said payments are declared to be a part of the court expenses of Fulton county, and such payments shall be made to the judge now in office, as well as to his successors. The provisions of this amendment shall take effect and the salaries herein provided for shall begin from the ratification of this amendment, as provided in the second section hereof, and shall apply to the incumbents in the several offices, as well as their successors.

FIUME PROCLAIMED INDEPENDENT STATE

The Fiume national council re-elected September 9.—(By the Associated Press).—Gabriele d'Annunzio today proclaimed Fiume an independent state from Paris which forced him to declare Fiume to be independent today and that he could not wait until September 12 as he had intended. The Fiume national council resigned today.

STREET FIGHTING RAGES IN TRIESTE

Trieste, September 9.—(By the Associated Press).—The outbreaks here leading to street fighting between nationalists and socialists have been resumed. Two deaths have occurred and a score of persons have been wounded.

Intermittent firing was continuing this evening, despite the fact that strong guards had been placed along the streets.

SUFFRAGIST QUESTIONS CHIEF JUSTICE WHITE

Washington, September 9.—Chief Justice White, of the United States supreme court, doesn't talk about pending cases, of course.

But an enthusiastic young suffragist didn't know that.

The chief justice was pointed out to her on the street. "Are you Chief Justice White?" she asked. "What do you think about suffrage ratification?" "I can't talk about that," replied

White in astonishment, as he started to hurry away.

"But I thank you for asking me," he added as he left.

WOMEN REGISTERING AS TWENTY-ONE PLUS

Tampa, Fla., September 9.—Women are registering here as "21 plus," refusing to give their exact age, the state law only requiring that they shall be 21. Among women who have so registered is Mrs. Amos Norris, active in club circles and once head of the U. D. C. of Florida.

CUT OF 20 PER CENT IN WOOL CLOTH PRICES

New York, September 9.—An approximate cut of 20 per cent in wool cloth prices by the American Woolen company was noted at the company's opening of its fall exhibit here today, according to The Textile World Journal. The cut said to be less than anticipated by the trade, was attributed to the fact that there has been little demand for woolen goods.

Savannah Teacher Refused Permission To Return From Mexico

Savannah, Ga., September 9.—(Special).—The Savannah superintendent of schools today received a delayed message from Mrs. Carmen Sanchez, teacher of Spanish in the Junior High school here, that she is unable to get out of Mexico and permit for her to leave the fall summit. She left Savannah in the early summer and other children leaving two here, and expected to bring them back to Savannah. Her message declares that she cannot return.

monthly private crop conditions reports due shortly will point to a smaller indicated production than was promised two weeks ago. Unless there is a cessation of wet weather inland, the deterioration for September is likely to be heavy, probably reducing prospects to such an extent as to cause the market to become uneasy as to whether the world's carry-over of available cotton this season will be 1,000,000 bales less than last year's surplus, and that even if this crop should be 13,000,000, including linters, or about one million larger than last season, which did not prevent prices from reaching the highest level in fifty years, the let alone the fact that the upward movement in prices started, Europe and the world in general is so much in need of cotton if not to a greater extent than it was at this time one year ago. In fact, the world's need of cotton is so great that it is believed that an adjustment will be arranged, as England cannot afford such a serious strike at this time.

H. & B. BEER.

New Orleans, September 9.—(Special.)—The opinion is gaining ground in this market that there has been a considerable change for the better in market conditions. The relative strength displayed by the October position is the best evidence that trade interests now have more confidence in the market. With continued heavy rain over most of the belt, the crop is rapidly deteriorating. A report issued by a Wall Street firm this afternoon indicates the deterioration should average 25 to 30 points at this time.

August 25 to 12 per cent, and unless the rains hold up shortly a sensational bullish report is to be expected at the beginning of next month. There is more looking around in spot circles, and spot interest which have sold good grades ahead are said to be getting nervous over the crop situation. The market is expected to be a trade demand, and altogether the market acts strong and appears to be headed for higher levels on the basis of the above.

The Quality of the Clothes I Sell Brings the Query, "Who Makes 'Em?"

—(and Bob answers)

When a fellow does an especially good piece of work—when he makes something that is unusually good and attractive, so much so that the people comment upon it—the question naturally arises, "Who is he?"

Well, that's the situation with the clothes I sell. Ever since I began the clothing and furnishings business—about eight years ago—I have been handling almost exclusively the clothes made by one big house.

True, these clothes have carried my name—made especially for me—but because they have always given such entire satisfaction in style, fit and wear, I have frequently been asked, "Who makes 'em."

I always take pride in answering that query. In fact, it's worth noting in these columns.

In Utica, N. Y., is located the clothing manufacturing plant of Kincaid & Kimball (successors to Brandegee, Kincaid Co.). It has been in successful operation since 1847, and has grown from year to year until today it takes rank with the largest manufacturing plants of its kind in America.

These are the makers of my clothes.

BOB HAYES

I have had the pleasure of a number of trips to and through this great clothing manufacturing establishment. In tremendously large, well-lighted, clean and inviting buildings, hundreds of the most expert American tailors are busy every working day in the year turning out the highest grade of clothing.

Every garment is hand-tailored, of the best quality of material, and knowing there is no better clothes made in America, I have been passing them on to my trade for years.

These are the clothes I am receiving now almost daily—new fall Suits in worsteds, unfinished worsteds, serges and fancy mixtures.

Selling on a close cash basis and turning my stock over rapidly, enables me to sell these clothes at a saving of from $10 to $20 to my customers on every suit. I KNOW THIS IS TRUE, and you'll realize the truth of it, too, if you'll examine my line of—

Suits at $45 to $65

And while I am talking about good things to wear, let me emphasize the values you will find here in New Fall Felt Hats.

My hat makers are such well-known manufacturers as the Mallory Hat Co., Frank Schoble & Co., and E. V. Cornett, and I have a range in prices in Felts of $5, $6, $7, $8 and $10. In velours I can give you great values at $8, $10, $12.50, $18 and $20. I especially invite the fellow who needs a new hat to come in and take a look at these nifty styles in all the pretty shades and shapes.

My friends and patrons will also find in my store one of the prettiest lines of Furnishings in the city—shirts, socks, underwear, neckwear, collars, handkerchiefs.

I would appreciate an opportunity to serve you in anything needed in the clothing or furnishings line, and if I don't save you money—then I don't ask you to spend a cent with me.

Just Bob
